TB Vets Hosts Free Information Sessions

Burnaby, BC - TB Vets Charitable Foundation, BC's original keytag organization, is hosting information sessions at their Burnaby facility at 4050 Graveley Street on May 17th & 31st, and June 14th & 28th, General Manager Ron Goyette announced today.

The free information sessions, presented by independent estate planner, Rhona Konnelly, CLU, EPC, CSA start at 2 p.m. and 7 p.m. each day and are 90 minutes in length. The topics are:

- Preserving Family Legacies (May 17th & 31st)
- Planning for Long Term Care (June 14th & 28th)

These information sessions will greatly benefit families and couples looking toward their future and their families' future and there will be no requests for donations. For more information and to reserve your seat, please call 604-874-5626 or visit www.tbvets.org/getinvolved. Refreshments will be served.

TB Vets receives no government funding. Donations to their annual Keytag Campaign have allowed TB Vets to provide grants in excess of $10 million to BC hospitals for the purchase of vital respiratory equipment. TB Vets also funds local tuberculosis research, supports the training of future Respiratory Therapists, and offers the comfort of a therapeutic Spinoza teddy bear to BC children suffering from respiratory illnesses. For more information on TB Vets or how to donate, please call 1-888-874-5626 or visit www.tbvets.org.
